

End User License Agreement (EULA)

The following provisions of this End User License Agreement (EULA) regulate the usage rights and exclusions of liability between SINUS Messtechnik GmbH as manufacturer and owner of all rights and the purchaser of the SAMURAI software together with the driver for Soundbook™ and HARMONIE™ devices.

1. You may install the software on one Soundbook™ or on one PC with a HARMONIE™ attached. Installation on one further PC without measurement hardware for your own post-processing is expressly permitted. Unauthorized transfer to third parties is expressly prohibited.
2. You may not publish, market, distribute, sell or sublicense the software without written consent from SINUS Messtechnik GmbH.
3. You may only permanently transfer all of your rights under this EULA to a third party under the condition that you do not retain any copies.
4. We explicitly draw your attention to the fact that even when software products are developed with great care, errors cannot be ruled out. Therefore you should first test all software first with non-critical data. Although every precaution has been taken in order to produce code that is as free of errors as possible, you use this software at your own risk. SINUS Messtechnik GmbH shall not under any circumstances be liable for data loss, damages and/or loss of profits associated with the use of this software.
5. This EULA is governed solely by the laws of the Federal Republic of Germany.
